I'm back in my office like I said, but you did not respond. I will take this that you will get back to me at some other point. I don't reference my requests and rights as something debatable or twistable, nor difficult. I have not provided you permission of any kind at this point. I find this harassing because I've offered several times to help you but you refuse to let me know what exactly you want or are looking for, or further explain what process provides you this power exactly, and why you don't need to respond to my requests. You emailed me today that your are going to come and root through my office, as far as I understand we still have a constitution and forgive me if I find that totally strange and harassing, and infringing upon our rights. I believe I've made 3 or 4 offers requesting what you want and that I'd provide it, but my cooperation may be over, because I wish to not be harassed because of what I believe occurred. If you can provide answers, I'd like an opportunity if I see fit to discuss those answers with my legal counsel at this point because it does not appear you are being cooperative with me. After that, I'll respond. This is a completely simple and appropriate request at this juncture.

I have an accountant to deal with tomorrow. Good night.

I really can't tomorrow and I'm heading out the door to a meeting right now . I'll be back in my office, but I could rather scan in leases or whatever you want to root through , but if you want open access to rooms and files with a lot of confidential information and I've received nothing in writing you are coming across as something very strange to me. You can provide a written request however, and I would send you the records you are requesting .

If you are asking if we provide lead paint disclosures etc, the answer is yes. If you are saying there was a complaint, I'm requesting the exact description and nature of a complaint , and have emailed you before.

The request I was referring to was to meet on Thursday 12/13/2012 rather than Tuesday or Wednesday. What I will need is access to your lease records and maybe 30 minutes of your time before I start the review of the records. Once I get through the record portion of the review I may need to ask you some questions as clarification. Is this something we can do tomorrow? I do not have a schedule of when I will be back in Omaha or Lincoln. I'm not sure what questions you are referring too.

Thank you for the response. Just to clarify, I did not request anything. It would be best for you to provide me what you want, and then I could likely provide it to you, likely could have the day you called before. Also I would like to have my questions answered.

If you don't need to travel, then don't come here, and kindly come up with an additional date after Christmas or when ever is needed. I am scheduled to be with accountant tomorrow morning starting early, and could not spend time with you for whatever you are doing..?.

Regards,

David

Mr. Fiala,

I scheduled this inspection date with you at your request knowing that I am in Lincoln and Omaha, NE for this week only. Are you now saying that you can't meet me on 12/13/2012 as we planned? I can not return next week as you requested and I do not have other inspections planned for Thursday since I was to meet with you. If I don't receive an email from you before tomorrow morning I will call for further information regarding this inspection.

I kindly ask that we reschedule your tenant record inspection you phoned me about . I have a annual financial audit that got moved up due to the auditor taking on more business after the first of the year , its going to take my time the next two days. It here nor there. Could we please change it to next week, I'll make any time work, I'd only ask that its not next Friday.

David
